Greene County Combined Health District receives Greene County Medical Society Donation

(Xenia, OH) The Greene County Combined Health District received an $800.00 donation for the Flu Immunization Program from the Greene County Medical Society on Tuesday, December 9, 2008.

“The Greene County Medical Society continues to help sponsor this important health initiative and is a valued community partner to the Health District. We appreciate and thank each member for their continued support of all of our programs,” Health Commissioner Mark A. McDonnell said.

Flu immunizations are available Monday – Friday at the Health District, 360 Wilson Dr., Xenia, from 8:00 a.m. – 11:00 a.m. and 1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.
