National HIV Testing Day (NHTD) is an annual campaign created by the National Association of People with AIDS (NAPWA) to promote voluntary HIV counseling and testing. Approximately 30,000 national organizations will participate this year. One quarter of all HIV positive people in the United States, roughly 250,000 people are unaware of their positive HIV status. Knowing one's HIV status is a powerful tool for HIV prevention.

Visit www.HIVtest.org for more information on HIV testing and to find local testing sites. You can also find local testing sites by texting your zip code to KNOWIT (566948), a service provided by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).
